walk over to Officer McDowell's car so the rest of the information for the crash report could be obtained. The driver was asked about how much Marijuana was inside his vehicle and he advised that it wasn't his and that he did not have an idea as to how much was there, but indicated it was a small amount earlier. He advised that he attended college but did not obtain a degree before playing football in the NFL. Detective Starling then read the Miranda wavier form to Collins. He stated that he understood all of his rights and agreed to answer questions about the incident that lead to his arrest. He voluntary signed the Miranda waiver form at 1005 hours.

Collins was asked to explain the events leading up to and including the crash that he was involved in prior to his arrest. He stated that he was at a party with his friend "TJ" on Garden Road in the Towson area. Collins advised that they left the party together around 0400 hours on 03/01/19. He noticed that "TJ" was carrying a large clear glass jar which contained marijuana. Collins stated that he drove "TJ" to the party in Towson and "TJ" did not have the marijuana with him at that time. They both entered his Corvette as "TJ" was holding the jar of marijuana. Collins began to drive "TJ" home from Towson to the Owings Mills area. Once in the Owings Mills area Collins lost control of his Corvette due to the snow covered roads. Once the vehicle was disabled, "TJ" got out of the Corvette and walked to his residence. Collins advised that he called AAA and began to wait for a tow truck to respond. Collins stated that the handgun found in his Corvette belonged to him and he forgot that it was in his car. He went on to say that he bought the gun in the state of Washington in 2017. Collins advised that he also owns a Glock 19 handgun as well as three rifles. He described the three rifles as an AK-47, two types of AR-15 long guns. He also stated that he had suppressors for the weapons. Collins advised that those firearms are located within his residence at [REDACTED] Court Reisterstown, Maryland 21136. Collins was asked if he had any marijuana in that residence. He stated that he should have personal use amounts of marijuana in his home. When asked where the marijuana would be located in his house Collins stated that it would just be laying around. Detective Strong asked Collins how he smokes the marijuana and he replied "Backwoods". found to weigh approximately five ounces. Detective Strong knows through his training, knowledge and experience that five ounces of marijuana is clearly more than needed for personnel use. He further knows that a subject who uses marijuana regularly would not need to travel or transport five ounces of marijuana at any time for personal use. Detective Strong knows through his training, knowledge and experience that a subject transporting five ounces of marijuana is more indicative of possession with the intent to distribute.

Detective Strong and Starling also know the following through their training, knowledge and experience that the firearm, a black in color Smith and Wesson 357 Magnum (serial number CSM7313) is a regulated firearm, which was carried within Defendant Collins' automobile in violation of CR 4-203. Furthermore, that those involved in narcotics distribution often carry firearms to protect themselves, their product, and their proceeds.

Sergeant Marley #3359 and Detective Starling asked Collins to complete a written statement as to his previous interview with detectives. He agreed and wrote a statement summarizing the events leading to his arrest. Collins also wrote in his statement that he had weapons and an unknown amount of marijuana in his residence located on Woodfield Ct.
